Pharm Labs hereby states that its Certificates of Analysis (COA) do not certify compliance with any federal, state, or local law or regulation, including but not limited to the 2018 Farm Bill. This COA is provided solely for informational purposes and is not intended for reliance by consumers or purchasers of a product. Pharm Labs does not warrant the accuracy or completeness of information contained herein, nor does it intend to prevent any third party from independently verifying information identified on this COA and do not represent any other lot, batch, or product from the client. Measurement of uncertainty is available upon request and, when legally required, has been reported on the certificate. Pharm Labs makes no representation or warranty, express or implied, regarding the tested products' safety, efficacy, quality, merchantability, or fitness for a particular purpose. Pharm Labs expressly disclaims any liability for damages, claims, costs, or expenses arising out of the use, misuse, or reliance upon this COA by any parties who are not direct customers of Pharm Labs. The user assumes all responsibility for determining whether the results shown hereon meet their needs and/or comply with applicable regulatory requirements pertaining to the sale and distribution of pharmaceutical products. Pharm Labs determines and ensures the compliance of their product(s) with all applicable federal, state, and local laws and regulations. This COA may not be used in whole or in part for marketing, advertising, promotional, or labeling purposes without the prior written consent of Pharm Labs. This COA is valid only as of the date of issuance and does not guarantee the stability or continued conformity of the tested product beyond that date. Any dispute arising out of or related to this COA shall be governed by the laws of the State of California, without regard to conflict of laws principles.
